

USS King Reunion Attendees Cajun Pride Tours will be your host for a day in New Orleans' Plantation Country

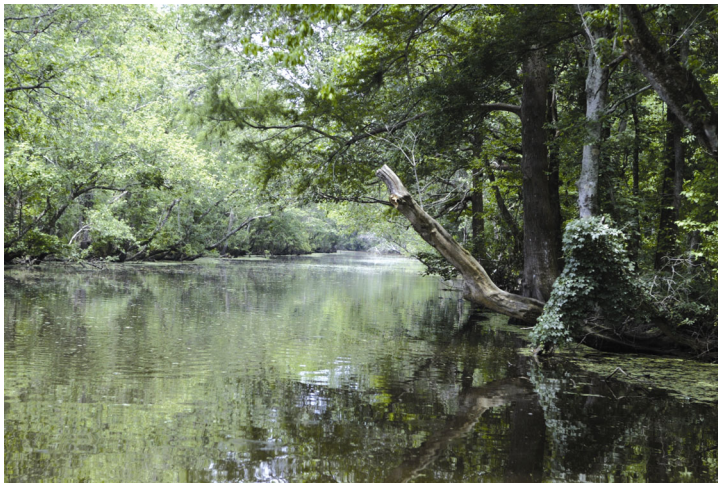

Join us for a day filled with entertainment, beauty and history

Friday, June 12, 2004

New Orleans' Plantation Country offers you both beauty and adventure as you enjoy the sights and sounds of the Manchac Swamp from the comfort of our covered boats and a leisurely paced tour as you visit San Francisco Plantation, built in 1837.

In the safety and comfort of our boat, you can enjoy viewing protected wild-life as they peak out from underbrush and between moss-draped trees .

You'll also enjoy touring the only authentically restored home on the Old River Road, San Francisco Plantation.

Day includes Swamp Tour,
jambalaya lunch,
and San Francisco Plantation Tour
with Transportation from your hotel.

Pick up at 8:30 AM
